

Patagonia Plants

Patagonia Plants

Gunnera magellanica

Common name: Dwarf Rhubarb

Height: 15-20cm

Growing: medium

Foliage: small rhubarb-like leaves on short creeping stems

Flowers / Fruits: forms small greenish flowers with reddish bracts.

Site: light shade to shade

Soil: acidic to alkaline

Irrigation: abundant

Hardiness: hardy -10°C

Long description: Gunnera magellanica is the dwarf version of Gunnera tinctoria and Gunnera manicata. The magellanica is a patagonian groundcover. This carpet-forming perennial has got 6 to 10 cm rounded, toothed leaves, on short creeping stems. It will bear small greenish flowers with reddish bracts.

Vendor Information