

Patagonia Plants

Patagonia Plants

Saxegothaea conspicua

Common name: Mañío hembra, Prince Albert's Yew Height: 15-20m

Growing: slow

Foliage: evergreen

Flowers / Fruits:

Site: sun to light shade

Soil: acidic to slightly alkaline, well-drained soil.

Irrigation: regular

Hardiness: -15 / -20°C

Long description: Saxegothaea conspicua is a slow-growing evergreen conifer. The bark dark purplish-brown. The leaves of Saxegothaea conspicua are arranged in irregular spirals on the branches.

Vendor Information