

Patagonia Plants

Patagonia Plants

Lomatia hirsuta

Common name: Radal, Nogal silvestre

Height: 15m

Growing: medium

Foliage: broadleaved evergreen with leathery leaves

Flowers / Fruits: stems with bright yellow flowers

Site: sun to shade

Soil: acidic to slightly alkaline

Irrigation: regular, well drained soil.

Hardiness: semi hardy -5°C

Long description: Lomatia hirsuta, also known as Radal or Nogal silverstre is a broadleaved evergreen tree with leathery leaves. It bears bright yellowish flowers on small stems. The bark has a bright greyish color.

Vendor Information